KZN's Got Talent Competition Rules

Entrance fee:

R50 Individuals Acts
 R100 Group Acts

The Gay & Lesbian Network (KZN's Got Talent) team is anticipating a large number of people so the chances are you may have a long wait in the queue. Bring water, food and something to protect you from the weather.

We do not pay for anyone to travel to the auditions and we do not provide refreshments on the day. Please arrange your own travel and refreshments. You will only be given an audition number on the day of auditions after completing your registration.

Children under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a parent/guardian at all times. The parents/guardians of children under the age of 18 must provide written consent to their participation in the show.

Please also bring a pen to sign all of the necessary forms.

The Audition:

Your audition may not exceed 2 minutes. Any act that exceeds 2 minutes in duration will be stopped.

- Dancers must bring their own music on a CD.
- Singers please bring a backing track to your audition.
- Musicians must bring their own equipment.
- Variety acts must take health and safety into account.

What should I wear and do?

Although your performance is ultimately what the judges will be judging you on, first impressions and attitude are important. So dress to impress and stand out in the crowd.

Audition Times

Venue: Pietermaritzburg Tourism Hub
Time: 09:00 – 16:00

The auditions will start at 9am. We suggest you get there super early to get a place at the front of the queue. If you are not standing in the queue by 12pm, you will not be allowed to audition as we will close the gates to the venue.

The event management may grant special permission to certain acts to arrive after 12pm, providing that they have a valid reason. In the event that you need to request such permission, you must email the event management team events@gaylesbian.org.za or info@gaylesbian.org.za

Enter KZN's Got Talent

Any person or group may enter KZN's Got Talent, as long as they are legal residents of South Africa, except for employees of Gay & Lesbian Network, National Department of Arts & Culture, Tourism KwaZulu-Natal and Msunduzi Pietermaritzburg Tourism Association.

Pre-registrations

Acts who have pre-registered are guaranteed an audition, providing you are there before 12pm. By pre-registering you are saving yourself a lot of time on the day as you will not need to spend any time filling out forms. If you have pre-registered, you must bring your pre-registered form with you to ensure you are given an audition number on the day.

Pre-registrations Payments Methods

1. Cash Payment on the Day
2. Bank Deposits to the Gay & Lesbian Network and attach proof of payment with your registrations forms

No DVD's will be acted for auditions; you must attend the auditions in person although certain acts may be asked to bring a DVD of their performance with them to the auditions.

What should I do at the audition?

You may do any kind of performance you wish at the audition, as long as it is not lewd, cruel to children or animals, or poses a danger to yourself or members of the auditioning team.

What if I forget my words or mess up my act?

You have one chance to impress, just one opportunity, so see this as the ultimate audition where there are no second chances. It's best to do your best performance ever.

How long will I need to be available for?

The final of KZN's Got Talent will take place in 25 June 2016 at Pietermaritzburg City Hall.

Prizes

The winner for the individuals acts prize is R5 000 and R5 000 for groups acts.
